Community Development Block Grant: Shaping Minot's Future Together

As many of you recall from our October newsletter article about the Community Development Block Grant award, the City of Minot is set to receive $331,580 in Entitlement funds for Fiscal Year 2024 (FY24) through the Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) program. This significant funding will support vital projects aimed at improving urban living conditions and expanding economic opportunities for low- and moderate-income (LMI) residents. As is required with all CDBG-funded projects, the City of Minot is fulfilling its Citizen Participation obligations, by involving the community in this process, starting with stakeholder and public information meetings.

On May 7, 2024, the City held two stakeholder meetings to discuss and identify key areas of need with representatives from 16 different agencies, all of which provide essential services to Minot residents. The discussions were guided by a pre-meeting questionnaire, which focused on challenges in housing, unmet service needs, services offered to LMI residents, and issues related to Fair Housing choice. Here is a sample of issues identified by the participants:

- Year-round, low-barrier shelters for families, women, and men
- Mental health services
- Childcare services
- Addiction services
- Enhanced transportation options

Housing affordability was a central theme, with discussions on the challenges faced by individuals with lower credit scores or criminal histories, high rental deposits, a shortage of affordable housing developers, and cost burdens on extremely low-income renters struggling with utility issues.

Following the stakeholder meetings, a public information session was held on May 8, 2024, at City Hall and streamed live on Facebook. This session provided an opportunity for Minot residents to voice their opinions and share their insights on housing needs in the community. Residents echoed many of the stakeholders' concerns but also brought additional needs to the forefront, such as:

- Financial counseling services
- Life skills classes
- Nutrition classes and services
- Mental health services
- Assistance for trailer park residents in owning their land
- Planning for the Future: Developing the Consolidated Plan

The valuable information gathered from these meetings will play an important role in shaping Minot's 2024-2029 Consolidated Plan. This comprehensive plan will guide the allocation of CDBG funds, ensuring they address the community's most pressing needs and support impactful projects.

Starting on July 1, 2024, the draft Consolidated Plan will be open for public comment for 30 days. The City of Minot encourages all residents to review the plan and provide feedback, helping to refine and improve the proposed strategies and initiatives. This community-driven approach ensures that the CDBG funds will be used effectively to build a stronger, more resilient Minot.

Participation from the community is essential for successful urban development; by participating in the public comment period and attending future meetings, residents play a vital role in shaping the future of Minot. The City is committed to transparency and encourages everyone to get involved, share their perspectives, and help prioritize the projects that will make the most significant impact.

Together, we can build a brighter future for Minot, ensuring that all residents have access to safe housing, essential services, and opportunities for economic growth. Stay tuned for more updates and ways to participate in the CDBG process. Your voice matters in shaping the resilient and thriving community we all envision.
